

I oppose the implementation of non-licensed operations in the 70cm amateur band. As proven by amateur radio operator response to the events of 9/11/01, access to all amateur bands must be available and not interfered with in times of emergency. Non-licensed operators will not be able to insure discontinuing their signals in times of emergency and therefore may cause significant harmful interference.